RESCUE ME

Jamie and her husband had been together 7 years, married the last 2 years. She said, "He never put a hand on me until last year. He lied. His behavior changed. He found if he hit, he could control me." He had a job but quit because half of his check was garnished to satisfy debt owed. She worked; he became a frustrated househusband. The baby would scream; he would get angry and take it out on Jamie. She wanted him to work; he called her selfish. She and the baby moved in with friends. So he would then call her work, go to her work and harass her there. Jamie said, "I quit my job because I was afraid at work. I got a restraining order."

Jamie then moved to the Mission's Samaritan Inn. She said, "I loved it there, it was supportive. I met other women going through the same thing. I could talk to staff. It was not just a place to stay, there were resources to help me. It was not pressured. It was loving and warm. I could concentrate and not worry about the stress of what home had been like. And if my husband went there (Samaritan Inn), I knew there would be support to protect us.

He did follow her to Samaritan Inn, refused to leave, staff called police and he was charged with trespassing. Jamie and 2-year-old Kalliana stayed several weeks, then staff helped her make arrangements to move to another city. She has all the tools she needs to have a safe, new start in life.

Jamie said that she has been a Christian for 10 years, but her husband was never serious about it. She loved our chapel messages. She said, "My relationship with the Lord improved. I learned to take time out for God everyday, to pray and go to church." At her new home, she attends a weekly Bible study. Jamie has been rescued and is now following the Lord, our Savior and Rescuer.

Dear Friends,

Rescue is taking what evil meant for destruction and freeing unto a godly salvation. Rescue is more than just pulling a person out of the water and into the boat, so to speak. Too often people jump back into the water of self-destruction. Rescue is equipping people with instruction and training so they won't have to be repeatedly pulled out.

"I rescued the poor who cried for help." Job 29:12

This is the Scripture verse Gospel Rescue Missions get the Rescue name. Job is our example of rescuing those that cannot rescue themselves. Sometimes its their own behaviors that cause turmoil. Sometimes they are victims, like Jamie. Sometimes its the fallen world itself in accidents, natural disasters, ailments. Rescue is about what can be done now and prevention techniques for the future. We have a New Life Program for men and women that offers the tools of work training, Bible classes, GED, education, life skills, addiction recovery, personal counseling and goal setting.

Thank you for being a part of this rescue operation.
